

2019 STATE & TERRITORY LANDCARE AWARDS

Entry Rules and Conditions

1. Acceptance of an entry into the 2019 State & Territory Landcare Awards is at the sole discretion of Landcare Australia Limited and the State/Territory Award organising body (the organisers) to the extent that they can refuse to accept or reject any entry without providing a reason.
2. The organisers accept no responsibility for nominations not received by the final date. The closing date for entries are Australia Capital Territory – 26 July 2019, New South Wales – 3 July 2019, Northern Territory – TBA, Queensland – 4 October 2019, South Australia – 26 July 2019, Tasmania – 16 September 2019, Victoria – 7 July 2019 and Western Australia – 10 July 2019. All nominations close at 11:59pm on their respective closing dates.
3. Entries must be submitted via the online entry portal. If you are having any technical difficulties with the portal, please contact eAwards Technical Support on 1300 959 555/0410 036 065 or info@eawards.com.au. If you are unable to access the portal and need to submit your nomination another way, please contact your State/Territory Award Coordinator. All entries must include at least two images, at least 1MB in size, and high-resolution (300dpi) JPG or TIFF files.
4. Nominees can enter only once in each category.
5. Winners and finalists from previous Landcare Awards campaigns are eligible to re-enter, however they must declare the category and if they were announced a winner or finalist for the judging panel review.
6. The prize for each State & Territory Landcare Awards is determined by the State /Territory organisers running the awards.
7. The decision of the judges will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
8. The nominee or applicant acknowledges and agrees that the organisers do not accept any responsibility for errors or omissions when content is reproduced for presentations or promotional activity, or if the nominee or applicant's supplements and nomination is lost or damaged or any other circumstance.
9. Awards are contingent upon the nominee or applicant permitting the organisers or their agents to publish sufficient information about the entry so that the general public can understand it. This information may be used for media and promotional purposes for the awards and landcare.
10. Entries may be submitted by a representative of a company/organisation or individual who, working alone or in a team, are primarily responsible for the project.
11. Joint entries that represent the work of several groups or organisations are accepted where approval of accreditation is required by either party, this will remain the sole responsibility of the nominee or applicant. The organisers bear no responsibility for obtaining accreditations regarding the origination of any entries. Only one prize will be awarded and this will be to the entrant that has made the submission.
12. Employees or immediate family members of the organisers are eligible to enter provided their nomination is for their volunteer work undertaken outside their paid role. Former employees may enter but must not submit entries based on their work at Landcare Australia or the State/Territory Awards organising body.
13. Entries must be in English.
14. The provision of all relevant information for the judges is the responsibility of the nominee or applicant however judges may seek further information or clarification if necessary.
15. The judges reserve the right not to award finalists or winners within categories or to move entries within categories.

2019 STATE & TERRITORY LANDCARE AWARDS

16. Each entry is submitted with an expectation of winning the competition. The organisers may use the content provided for media and promotional activity or presentations to describing the entry.
17. No guarantee of confidentiality can be provided, however if there is information associated with an entry that the nominee or applicant wishes to remain confidential, the nominee or applicant should first contact the organisers.
18. Winners of the national categories at the 2019 State & Territory Landcare Awards subsequently become finalists of the 2020 National Landcare Awards (excluding the People's Choice category winner, or any special state specific category winners).
19. The organisers reserve the right to use at any time the information from the entries - including photographs - in any marketing or public relations promotion for the sole purpose of promoting landcare and the ethos. All rights are reserved.
20. The organisers will use information disclosed in submissions and entries for evaluating the entry.
21. Please note that all materials provided to the awards organisers may be destroyed following the judging process. The exception may be for the category finalists and winners; these materials may be retained by the organisers. The award entrant grants the organisers permission to show the entries at the 2019 State & Territory Landcare Awards events and at such other places or times as deemed appropriate at the sole discretion of the organisers. No entry or materials will be returned to the entrant, this includes use of supplied images.
